Artisan Partners' David Samra Hosts Annual Stock Pitch Challenge

San Francisco, California. David Samra, lead portfolio manager of Artisan Partners International Value Team, hosted the Artisan International Value Stock Pitch Challenge in partnership with Columbia Business School on January 22, 2021. This was the first year the stock pitch challenge was held virtually.

The event was produced by Columbia Business School's Heilbrunn Center for Graham & Dodd Investing, which aims to promote and improve the study, development and practice of value investing.

As an esteemed graduate of Columbia Business School and a distinguished value investor, Mr. Samra was glad to participate in and lead the event. He explained, "This event is always one of my favorites. It keeps me engaged with my alma mater, connects me with other leading value investors and introduces me to the next generation of value investing talent."
